

BRIEF CV

Alexandros Koliopoulos is a Supreme Court Lawyer, a member of the Thessaloniki Bar Association, and has been practicing law since 1999. He specializes in Civil Law, Commercial Law (Company Law, Corporate and Industrial Property Law, Legal Information, Legal Law as well as in Public Law participating in cases of wider legal and social interest. He has been a mediator and legal representative and has more than twenty years of experience in out-of-court dispute resolution. He teaches "Law and Economics" in the department of "Management Science and Technology" of University of Western Macedonia as well as "Mediation and Negotiation" in the Postgraduate Department of "Human Resource Management" of the above University. He holds a master's degree in "Sociology, Philosophy and History of Law" from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and "Education in Human Resource Management - Mediation" from the University of Western Macedonia. He actively participated in studies and research laboratories of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in the fields of " united European Area" and "Sovereignty - Security - Human Rights" as well as in numerous conferences. His doctoral dissertation focused on Mediation - Negotiation between Companies and Banking Institutions. He has been a legal Referee, and a member of the scientific affairs committee of the Thessaloniki Bar Association. He is a solicitor and external collaborating lawyer of companies under public law, Municipalities as well as many companies and businesses